Itinerary

Day 1: Travel to Kilimanjaro, Tanzania, and stay at a charming lodge for the night.

Day 2: Mid-morning drive to the Maasai plains, where we'll relax with a delicious lunch at the Maasai lodge. Afterward, we'll stretch our legs with a nature walk alongside the Maasai and have our opening Cacao Ceremony in the evening.

Day 3: Rise and shine for a morning walk in the vast wilderness and a leadership deep dive to awaken our three centers of intelligence: heart, head, and gut.

Day 4: Submerged in the wilderness at the Maasai Lodge, we continue our leadership deep-dive into the power of our multiple intelligences.

Day 5: Take a break from the bustle with relaxing massages, nature walks, a sauna & swim, contemplation & journaling. We'll gather for an evening Cacao & Fire Ceremony.

Day 6: Experience the ultimate safari adventure as we journey to the Sinya wilderness to meet elephants and other wildlife. We'll munch on a scrumptious lunch on the road and spend the night at Bush Camp, out in the wild.

Day 7: Greet the African sunrise with a soulful meditation, followed by a walking safari, a visit to the Maasai tribe, and a drive to Arusha. We'll wrap up the day with a cozy evening by the fire at a boutique lodge.

Day 8: Unwind and absorb all we've learned on our integration day at the lodge before departing in the evening for our outward flight.

Important

A personal introduction by Zoom will be scheduled to get acquainted and to see if this retreat is the right fit for you before your participation is confirmed.

The retreat requires a minimum of 4 participants to take place.

Medical Conditions, Form & Liability

This retreat applies techniques that lead to deep transformation. To guarantee personal safety all participants are required to provide information about their medical history, and sign forms related to liability. We will make use of the cacao plant during ceremonies, which is not advised when using antidepressant medication.

Connectivity

We will journey to the wilderness, which means you that often you will not have full internet and phone connection. To support your journey within, distance yourself from internet/phone as much as possible. Please be aware and inform your family and organization that you will have no or little connection for some days.

Travel regulations, vaccinations & COVID-19

All participants are responsible for their own visa, vaccinations and COVID-19 related matters to enter Tanzania.

This retreat is executed in partnership with our local partner & destination management company Kipenzi Safari.
